Archaeological finds in Southern Romania (1868-1873), drawing from the Historic Archive of the Institute of Archaeology, Bucharest, Romania

Culture 2000

The ARENA project is a partnership between six organisations from Denmark, Poland, Norway, Romania, Iceland and the United Kingdom. The project is supported by the European Community through the Culture 2000 programme.

The main aims of ARENA:

- To make selected European archaeological archives available through the Internet.
- To create a Portal allowing access to Sites and Monuments data from the partners.
- To run workshops on digital preservation and access issues.
- To work together to research ways towards a European network for archaeological archives.

For more information on the ARENA project follow the links from our homepage at <http://ads.ahds.ac.uk/arena/>
